

Wicked Events

enliven your network

Are you yearning for a richer exchange at conferences or events and gatherings?

Are you tired of panels and the old 'sage on the stage' format?

What if your professional events became lively hubs for multi-directional knowledge exchange, creativity and conscious networking?

What we offer

Wickedly Engaging Events

Wickedly Engaging Events modernise conference design by shifting the emphasis away from the keynote 'sage on the stage' model. Instead, we engage the wisdom and diversity of peoples attending your event. This re-orientation increases everyone's potential for meaningful connections and insights that live on beyond the event.

We call this enlivening the Social Ecology.

event features

- contemporary design to produce a holistic event
- clear arc of development through the event
- a focus on interaction and engagement
- valuing the wisdom and experience of participants

what people say about our events:

“Aside from the precious opportunity to meet everyone, there were several remarkable moments for me that were ignited by the always inspiring connection with other kindred spirits”

How we get you there

we work differently

We create warm, collegiate spaces where everyone can relax and choose their level of participation.

We allow space for meaning making and integration to enhance practical, actionable outcomes.

We use purposeful playful and innovative methods to bring out your natural vitality and help you share knowledge organically.

We use practices that balance the right and left hemispheres of the brain to bring all kinds of wisdom to the table.

We generate a storytelling culture touching all our hearts and minds.

We draw on collaborative, embodied and creative practices such as:

- Open Space Technology
- World Cafe
- InterPlay
- Playback Theatre
- Warm Data Labs
- Purposeful Play
- Applied Improvisation
- Crafted Storytelling

what people say about our events:

"nothing can diminish the connection between caring, impassioned souls... thank you all hugely, hugely, hugely"

Why us?

our unique skillset

We excel in:

- making engagement accessible
- engaging the “whole person”
- activating the social field
- facilitating rich knowledge exchange and meaning making
- creating experiences that live beyond the event

Wicked Elephants are engagement facilitators excited to offer you this contemporary approach to knowledge sharing, celebration and networking.

We specialise in participatory, embodied and creative practices - both online and off.

We embrace complexity, helping you work more effectively to become more resilient in a fast-changing world.

Our business structure is a cooperative, meaning that we have a non-hierarchical working environment and are interested in making a living, not a profit!

what people say about our facilitation:

“you make an incredible team and are so supportive and wise with all the skills you bring”
